THE CHEESE STEAK

BEEF STEAK
PHILLY PUCK
MJK #64698

SOURDOUGH
HOAGIE
MJK #76097

FROM PENNSYLVANIA

A sandwich made of thinly sliced beef (or chicken) cooked on a griddle and served on a sliced roll with cheese. Traditional cheese choices are American, Provolone or Cheez Whiz. You can order "wit" or "without" onions. Philadelphians Pat and Harry Olivieri are often credited with inventing the sandwich.

SEASHORE FLATS

MJK #60941

Enjoy this distinctive cut, providing a satisfying crunch and seasoned with sea salt, cracked black pepper, and garlic.

Craving a Monte Cristo?

FROM CALIFORNIA

In its most basic form, this ham and cheese sandwich is egg dipped then pan fried. It may also be batter-dipped and then deep fried. This sandwich gained its popularity after the Blue Bayou Restaurant in Disneyland began to serve it. It is said to be a variation of the classic French Croque Monsieur.

LATTICE CHIP

MJK #74504

These chips boast an authentic kitchen-cut look and exceptional flavor. Their crispy, upscale quick-cooking nature and unique lattice cut deliver a scratch-made taste and texture. Whether served hot or cold, they can be prepared in advance to save time and labor during busy periods, making them a convenient and satisfying addition to plates and baskets.

RIBCUT SWEET POTATO MJK #74503

These thin, crispy, crinkle-cut sweet potatoes provide more servings per case than thicker cuts. Their classic, fun shape and light coating with a clear batter ensure maximum hold time and crispiness, making them a perfect choice for customers seeking healthier options.

A TASTE OF NEW ORLEANS

The Shrimp Po' Boy

FROM LOUISIANA

Battered shrimp tossed in a spicy, buttery garlic sauce and served hot on a light-as-air French bread. Order it "dressed" with lettuce, tomato, pickles and mayo. The Po' Boy originated in 1929 during the streetcar strike at Martin Brother's French Market and Coffee Stand in New Orleans.

PORK TENDERLOIN

Taste of the Heartland

FROM INDIANA

A breaded, deep fried pork loin cutlet is slapped on a bun and eaten with typical burger fixings such as mayo, mustard, lettuce, onions and pickles. Unlike your typical burger, this sandwich breaks the rules of fitting perfectly between two buns. It is said that this sandwich is a unique take on the German Wiener Schnitzel.

Hot Diggity Dog!

Eisenberg®

BEEF FRANK GOURMET 5/1
MJK #67145

LOS ANGELES STREET DOG

A bacon wrapped hot dog topped with sweet sautéed peppers and onions. Many LA natives will layer generous amounts of ketchup, mayo and mustard along with a giant grilled poblano pepper.

CHICAGO STYLE HOT DOG

Chicago Style Dog starts with a steamed dog on a fluffy poppyseed bun. A variety of toppings are added such as mustard, chopped white onion, pickle relish, pickled sports peppers and a dill pickle. Some Chicagoans will add freshly sliced tomatoes and a dash of celery salt to heighten the flavor profile!

CAROLINA STYLE HOT DOG

The Carolina Slaw Dog is covered in a beefy chili, creamy homemade cole slaw, and onions. Occasionally mustard will be added as a fourth ingredient.

NEW YORK STYLE HOT DOG

A classic New York Style hot dog starts with a boiled beef or pork dog topped with tangy brown mustard, sautéed onions, sauerkraut and pickled relish. Some New Yorkers may kick it up a notch by adding a special onion sauce – a concoction of ketchup, mayo, more onions and spices such as cinnamon and chili powder.
